Lee Business School
BSBA Degree, Marketing, 2016-2017

All businesses need marketers. The major in marketing prepares students for diverse job opportunities in the marketplace. Courses required include advanced studies in buyer behavior, marketing research, international marketing, and the development of marketing policies. The student has a wide range of choices for more specialized topics such as marketing communications and advertising, retailing, services, marketing, sales management, direct marketing, product planning, and international marketing.

Suggested Academic Plan

This is a suggested academic plan. Students may make adjustments and consult the current Undergraduate Catalog for course prerequisites. Student should also confirm with departments for semester course offerings.

♦ The number of general electives varies depending on the total credits used to meet requirements. A student should count the number of credits needed to meet degree requirements and subtract that from the minimum credits required to earn the degree (120). The difference is the number of general elective credits needed.

The Undergraduate Catalog is the source for academic requirements and policies. Those listed below are some policies that affect registration. Please see the Undergraduate Catalog for additional information. Seek clarification from an academic advisor as needed.

- Please see the current Undergraduate Catalog for course prerequisites. The current course prerequisites apply to all students, regardless of a student's catalog of matriculation.
- Minimum C (2.0) grade required in the prerequisite in order to continue with subsequent courses. Minimum C grade required to satisfy degree requirements.
- Admission to the major required to enroll in upper-division business courses.
- Lee Business School's Course-Repeat Policy: Students may take business courses a maximum of three times for degree applicability.
- Students should apply for graduation at least two semesters prior to their expected graduation date. Please see MyUNLV to initiate graduation and speak with your advisor about eligibility.
